

UK landlines are going digital.

Are you ready for the switch?

At Hale Village Hall | Tuesday 20th May, 10am - 12pm
Hale Village Hall, Halton, L24 4AE

Join us for our Digital Switchover
Information Drop-in, hosted alongside BT.

Are you or someone you know dependent on a landline and curious about what the Digital Switchover means for you?

While landlines are not disappearing, we understand you may have questions or want more information about this transition.

Come along to our drop-in session where you can learn all about Digital Voice, what you need to do to prepare, and discover the available solutions for you.

No need to book, just drop in and come and speak to our friendly experts.
